

The Evening Post.

WILMINGTON, N. C.

Tuesday, August 26th, 1873.

THE Goldsboro' Messenger quotes an article from the Chicago Tribune, which supported Greeley in the last campaign, as "a leading Republican paper in the West." This is because there is the periodical outbreak about "carpet baggers," etc. When one of these gentry have nothing else to pitch into, they prate of "carpet bag governments," and pile up a small array of figures to show the condition of the South. The burden of the Tribune's song is the difference, according to the census, in the values of the South, in 1870 and in 1860. Ignoring the terrible losses of the war, and the freedom of some four million slaves, it argues that this is accounted for as follows:

"1st. The diversion of a large proportion of the colored people from systematic industry; and

"2nd. The villanies of carpet bagism."

"But," says the Tribune, "the people of the North cannot afford to have this process of impoverishment continue.—The difference of $5,000,000,000 in property values at the South, including the actual depreciation and the stoppage of natural increase, means a withdrawal of that amount of tax-paying resources.—This withdrawal of taxes, which the Southern States might pay under favorable circumstances, throws just that additional burden upon the tax-paying property of the North. In this view of the case, the support of the carpet-bag governments of the Southern States falls proportionately upon every tax-payer in Northern States."

While the "systematic industry" may mean huddling the colored people on vast plantations to labor for a few, the intimation there is that our colored population are non-producers, and but a small proportion of them at work. We regret to say there are some idle and vicious colored people in our midst, but the proportion is no greater than among the whites. They have never received that training in system that gives them much executive ability, but for industry and a desire to build up homes, and to own small farms, they are fully equal to their white laboring brethren. A few thousand of the colored youth, that, under the old regime, would soon be picking cotton, will be going to school, and there is a portion of this "systematic industry" the Tribune speaks of. And the wives of most of our colored men have their own household duties to perform, instead of working in the field, and there is another large portion of the "systematic industry" gone. So we see that the labor of the South can be much less than formerly, without much idleness or laziness.

The carpet-bag State business is so nearly played out now, that it is hardly necessary to make any remarks in relation to it. The term is only used now by country papers, who think it is still a power in the land. The thinking men of the South are becoming aware of the importance of immigration, and the absolute necessity of an influx of Northern men, or ruination. The South needs the brain, muscle and money of every man who can be induced to come here, and the wise men thoroughly appreciate this, and the senseless whine of "carpet-baggers" has gone among the things that were.

Mr. Jefferson Davis.

We do not see the propriety of constantly writing a man into publicity who is fast falling out of public notice by himself. At the close of the war, while the whole South was enthusiastic of Gen. Lee, there were many who served in the confederacy who had much less admiration for Mr. Jefferson Davis. But Andy Johnson had Davis incarcerated in Fortress Monroe, and he at once became a martyr. A storm of indignation swept over the South, and his bitterest foes became his warmest friends. After Davis went into the insurance business, his vast prominence gave way to a square business standing, where he belonged.

At the late Historical Society, Mr. Davis made a speech, calculated to fire the Southern heart and renew the popularity he was losing in the South, which would have hurt no one, had the North done, as he had so persistently on former occasions demanded, "let him alone." But the Northern press denounced him, and even the New York Tribune failed to come into the admiration ring, and forthwith he becomes a hero again.

The Raleigh News prints the following:

At the banquet given to President Davis at Montgomery White Sulphur Springs, that distinguished Southerner declined to speak to the toast: "The health of our much loved and respected President, Jefferson Davis," but proposed one instead, in honor of Admiral Semmes, who was present, as follows: "The grand old Admiral, who started to sea in one ship, wore her out, then took another and swept away the commerce of our enemies."

Now, we don't care if every admirer of Jeff. Davis in America calls him "President Davis," if it makes him any happier, and all our Northern friends need do is just to "let him alone," and he will again quiet down. It is only when the Northern press attack him that we hear anything from him, and it seems to us the best thing to do is to let him have his little talk, and enjoy himself. Who cares?

THE LAST OF THE MODOCS!

CAPTAIN JACK TO BE HUNG.

SCHONCHIS, BOSTON CHARLEY, BLACK SIM, ONED JIM, AND SLOLUCK TO DIE.

THE FINDINGS OF THE COURT MARTIAL.

General Court Martial Order No. 32 has been issued from the War Department. We make the following extracts from the Washington Chronicle:

WAR DEPARTMENT, ADJUTANT GENERAL'S OFFICE, Washington, Aug. 23, 1873.

I. Before a military commission which convened at Fort Klamath, Oregon, July 1, 1873, pursuant to Special Field Orders No. 1, dated June 30, 1873, Headquarters Department of the Columbia, in the field, Fort Klamath, Oregon, and of which Lieutenant Colonel W. L. Elliott, 1st cavalry, is president, were arraigned and tried—

Captain Jack, Schonchis, Black Jim, Boston Charley, Barcho, alias One-eyed Jim, and Sloluck, alias Cok, Modoc Indian captives.

Charge I.—"Murder, in violation of the laws of war."

The two specifications include the assassination of General Canby and the Peace Commissioners while under a flag of truce at Tule Lake in California on the 11th day of April.

Charge II.—"Assault with intent to kill, in violation of the laws of war."

The two specifications in this charge are simply other counts in the indictment, for same offense, committed at the same time.

To which charges and specifications the accused, Captain Jack, Schonchis, Black Jim, Boston Charley, Barcho, alias One-eyed Jim, and Sloluck, alias Cok, Modoc Indian captives, pleaded "Not guilty."

FINDING.

The commission, having maturely considered the evidence adduced, finds the accused, Captain Jack, Schonchis, Black Jim, Boston Charley, Barcho, alias One-eyed Jim, and Sloluck, alias Cok, Modoc Indian captives, as follows:

Charge I—Of the 1st specification, "guilty."

Of the 2d specification, "guilty."

Of the charge, "guilty."

Charge II—Of the 1st specification, "guilty."

Of the 2d specification, "guilty."

Of the charge, "guilty."

SENTENCE.

And the commission does therefore sentence them, Captain Jack, Schonchis, Black Jim, Boston Charley, Barcho, alias One-eyed Jim, and Sloluck, alias Cok, Modoc Indian captives, "to be hanged by the neck until they be dead, at such time and place as the proper authority shall direct—two-thirds of the members of the commission concurring therein."

2d. The proceedings, findings, and sentences of the military commission in the cases of Captain Jack, Schonchis, Black Jim, Boston Charley, Barcho, alias One-eyed Jim, and Sloluck, alias Cok, Modoc Indian captives, were approved by the commanding officer of Department of the Columbia, and forwarded to the Secretary of War for the action of the President of the United States.

The following are the orders of the President and of the Secretary of War:

EXECUTIVE ORDER, Aug. 23, 1873. The foregoing sentences in the cases of Captain Jack, Schonchis, Black Jim, Boston Charley, Barcho, alias One-eyed Jim, and Sloluck, alias Cok, Modoc Indian prisoners, are hereby approved; and it is ordered that the sentences in said cases be carried into execution by the proper military authority, under the orders of the Secretary of War, on the 3d day of October, 1873.

U. S. GRANT, President.

WAR DEPARTMENT.

WASHINGTON, August 23, 1873.

The foregoing record of the proceedings in the trial, by military commission, of Captain Jack, Schonchis, Black Jim, Boston Charley, Barcho, alias One-eyed Jim, and Sloluck, alias Cok, Modoc Indian prisoners, having been transmitted to the President, and laid before him for his orders thereon, and the President having in the foregoing orders approved the sentences, and directed that they be executed under the orders of the Secretary of War, the sentences will be duly executed under the direction of the general commanding the Department of the Columbia, at Fort Klamath, Oregon, Friday, October 3, 1873.

WILLIAM W. BELKNAP, Secretary of War.

By order of the Secretary of War:

E. D. TOWNSEND, Adjutant General.

It should be in the hands of every man who desires to know what has transpired during the day, and, as it aims to give its publisher hopes it will prove a welcome guest in many families.

RELIABLE INTELLIGENCE,

THE POST

is sprightly without being sensational, and it carefully excludes all objectionable incidents and reports calculated to offend the sensibilities of the most fastidious. As an

Advertising Medium

it claims to be first class. It has a good and constantly increasing circulation, and is read by almost every business man in the city. Politically the Post is

UNSWERVINGLY REPUBLICAN.

Its editor having been a consistent member of that party since 1855, through its vicissitudes and triumphs, he claims to speak advisedly when advocating its principles. He is not, however an "extremist," and accords to others what he claims for himself, the right of free thought and of free speech.

THE ADVERTISING RATES OF THE POST, like its subscription price, are at liberal and at living prices, as an examination of them will show, and it bespeaks a share of public patronage.

THE EVENING POST

is closely identified with the local welfare of the Cape Fear region, and the believers in progress, whether

EDUCATIONAL,

AGRICULTURAL,

MECHANICAL, or

COMMERCIAL,

will find an enthusiastic ally in THE POST.

THE POST

is opposed to monopolies, but in favor of internal improvements, and a firm believer in the patronage and support of home enterprises and institutions.

AS A FAMILY PAPER.

The Times will have no superior; it will be free from all appeals to vulgar and impure tastes, and may be safely admitted to every domestic circle.

AS A REPUBLICAN JOURNAL.

The Times will be devoted, as in the past, to an intelligent and firm support of the Republican Party. Its course in reference to the Tammany Ring, at a time when all other daily papers in New York obstructed and discouraged its efforts, attests its sincerity in the cause of Reform. The Times stood alone in demanding Reform from 1869 to the close of 1871, and there is no sincerer and honest proposal for Reform, in any branch of the Government, which will not be heartily supported by the Times. But it will not conspire in assisting ambitious politicians or demagogues to reach power under false pretenses. It will not encourage defection from the Republican Party, which is still the party of progress, security and national prosperity. It will sustain, with all the force and influence at its command, the principles and policy which have rendered that party so justly famous in our history. It will advocate those measures by which the honor, the peace, and the prosperity of the nation can be best secured and promoted, and will constantly study the wants of the people rather than the wishes of the politicians.

THE NEW YORK SEMI-WEEKLY TIMES

Is published every Tuesday and Friday, and contains all the agricultural and literary material of the Weekly edition, and a full and careful compilation of editorial and news features of the Daily.

Terms of the Semi-Weekly Times: One copy, one year, $3; two copies, one year, $5; three copies, one year, $7; and one extra copy free.

Subscriptions to either of our editions received for a less length of time than one year at yearly rate.

These prices are invariable. Remit in drafts on New York or Post-office orders. Orders, if possible, and where neither of these can be procured, send the money in a registered letter. All Post-masters are obliged to register letters when requested to do so, and the system is an absolute protection against losses by mail. Address THE NEW YORK TIMES, New York City.

We especially call the attention to the following testimonials of the Paint:

C. P. Knight, Esq.—Dear Sir: I have used Bradley's Patent Enamel Paint on my dwelling last Spring, and am much pleased with it, and it looks as well now as when first painted, and consider it a good Paint. Yours, truly, Cresswell P. O., Hartford county, Md., Feb. 6th, 1873. A. H. STRASSBAUGH.

THE PLAINS, FAUQUIER CO., VA., Feb. 6th, 1873.

Mr. C. P. Knight—Sir: The Paint came safely to hand as ordered—two kegs, five gallons each, and three buckets, one gallon each. As practice was slack, I did the job myself. Two weeks, (not constant work,) completed the house two coats. The last coat I applied thick, and it is now generally conceded that for enamel-like hardness, and body, and harmony of colors, there is not a handsomer job in the place. I saved sixty-five dollars by the operation, which is an item just now with Southern people. It should be generally adopted to the very severe test it undergoes at this establishment, where, during our daily cleaning, soap and soda are constantly applied to it, and yet it appears as sound and fresh as when put on. Of the numerous advantages it possesses over other paints, I will only mention its being mixed and ready for use in quantities to suit purchasers, its quickly drying properties, which saves much time in the execution of work where paint is needed, and its very perceptible tenacity, which imparts beauty and durability to the objects on which it is used. As such I most earnestly recommend it to the merchants and tradesmen of our city, believing it will give them greater satisfaction than they can possibly anticipate. Very respectfully and truly, S. MCGILL, M. D.

TO THE PUBLIC.—It affords me much pleasure to state that in July, 1871, Front Street Theatre was painted inside and out with "Bradley's Patent Enamel Paint," for which C. P. Knight, No. 93 West Lombard Street, is agent, and, to testify to its superiority over any and all other paints for similar uses. In no private dwelling can paint possibly be subjected to the very severe test it undergoes at this establishment, where, during our daily cleaning, soap and soda are constantly applied to it, and yet it appears as sound and fresh as when put on. Of the numerous advantages it possesses over other paints, I will only mention its being mixed and ready for use in quantities to suit purchasers, its quickly drying properties, which saves much time in the execution of work where paint is needed, and its very perceptible tenacity, which imparts beauty and durability to the objects on which it is used. As such I most earnestly recommend it to the merchants and tradesmen of our city, believing it will give them greater satisfaction than they can possibly anticipate. WM. E. RINN.

BALTIMORE, April 25, 1873.

Mr. C. P. Knight—Dear Sir: The paints we received from you have been applied to several of our own buildings and to those of our friends, and have given entire satisfaction in covering qualities, in gloss, and in adaptability to all kinds of surface of material and we cheerfully recommend it, especially to that class of consumers who have to depend upon unknown parties, or painters to mix and furnish materials, wherein we have found the most deception. Yours, truly, JACOB STOUFFER & SON.

FROM HON. JOHN WETHERED.

Mr. C. P. Knight—At the recommendation of a friend, I was induced to apply your patent "Bradley's" paint to my house. I have pleasure in stating that it has proved highly satisfactory, covering more surface than you promised, is more economical, carries better gloss than ordinary paint, and is freer from disagreeable odor. JOHN WETHERED.

Yours, Respectfully,

BALTIMORE, December 27th, 1871.

Mr. C. P. Knight—Dear Sir:—I am very happy to inform you that your "Patent Enamel Paint" has given entire satisfaction. I prefer it to any paint I have ever seen used, and recommend it for durability and beauty as paramount to any other. Very Respectfully, R. DICKEY, M. D.

C. P. KNIGHT, Sole Agent, No. 93 W. Lombard Street, Baltimore.

"Unquestionably the best sustained work of the kind in the World."

Harper's Magazine.

NOTICES OF THE PRESS.

The ever-increasing circulation of this excellent monthly, proves its continued adaptation to popular desires and needs. Indeed, when we think into how many homes it penetrates every month, we must consider it as one of the educators as well as entertainers of the public mind, for its past popularity has been won by no appeal to stupid prejudices or depraved tastes.—Boston Globe.

The character which this Magazine possesses for variety, enterprise, artistic wealth, and literary culture that has kept it with, if it has not led the times, should cause its conductors to regard it with justifiable complacency. It also entitles them to a great claim upon the public gratitude. The Magazine has done good and not evil all the days of its life.—Brooklyn Eagle.
